

Isabella Coccozza

Associate

Philadelphia

215.564.8522

icoccozza@stradley.com

Isabella Coccozza focuses her practice on high stakes health care litigation, representing managed care organizations, third-party administrators, and plan sponsors in a variety of complex commercial disputes.

While in law school, Isabella served as an article editor of the Women's Rights Law Reporter and was a judicial intern for the Honorable Rose Marie DeFino-Nastasi of the Philadelphia County Court of Common Pleas, Homicide Division. Isabella was also an in-house legal intern at the national governing body for track and field and a provider of title insurance and settlement services to the real estate and mortgage industries.

PUBLICATIONS

- Author, "Beyond the Binary: Reimagining Transgender Health Care Justice Beyond the ADA," Women's Rights Law Reporter

RECOGNITIONS

- Pro Bono Publico Award for Significant Service to the Community, Rutgers University School of Law (2024)

FOCUS

Litigation
Health Care Litigation

BAR ADMISSIONS

Pennsylvania

EDUCATION

J.D., Rutgers University School of Law – Camden

B.A., magna cum laude, Saint Joseph's University

MEMBERSHIPS

Philadelphia Bar Association

STRADLEY
RONON