Wesley Davis focuses his practice on counseling investment companies including mutual funds, private funds, closed-end funds and exchange-traded funds, and investment advisers on regulatory, compliance, and transactional issues. He advises investment management clients in all aspects of legal representation, including drafting and reviewing registration statements, proxy solicitation materials, and other regulatory filings; researching various securities and corporate law issues; and preparing board materials.

Wesley graduated, cum laude, from Temple University Beasley School of Law. During law school, he served as a summer law clerk for the Honorable Maureen Kelly, U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Western District of Pennsylvania. While in law school, Wesley also served as an intern for the Philadelphia-area Low Income Taxpayer Clinic and worked as a legal assistant at a high-volume personal injury firm in Philadelphia. Wesley earned his B.A. from University of Pittsburgh.
